

Ribbon

Ribbon is a range of rugs designed by Andreas Engesvik for Fogia. The design draws on classic Scandinavian rugs but with colour combinations that bring them bang up to date.

With heavy focus on weaving quality and materiality, each rug is created by hand using sumak weaving, making each piece unique. The repeat conforms to an algorithm that ensures that the squares are the same size for each size, without altering their proximity to the edge of the rug.

Ribbon is available in a number of colour ways ranging from muted neutral tones to strong blues and green hues.

Handmade by sumak weaving technique in wool.

Four colour ways: rust, green, beige and blue.

Sizes: 170 cm x 240 cm & 201,5 cm x 309 cm.
